Structure Law Group, LLP in San Jose Expands its Corporate and Litigation Practices with the Addition of Two Associate Attorneys

San Jose, California (PRWEB) March 14, 2013 – Tamara Pow and Mark Figueiredo, founders of Structure Law Group, LLP, a business, real estate and litigation law firm in San Jose, are pleased to announce the addition of Elias (Eli) Salameh and Serge Filatov to the firm. Mr. Salameh has joined the firm's litigation practice group and Mr. Filatov has joined the firm's transactional practice group. Tamara Pow said, "We are excited to have both Serge and Eli as part of our team. Their experience nicely rounds out both our litigation and transactional practice groups."

Mr. Salameh represents both businesses and individuals in prosecuting and/or defending lawsuits. "Eli's experience and demeanor make him a tremendous asset to our clients," said Mark Figueiredo, who leads the firm's commercial litigation group. Prior to joining Structure Law Group, Mr. Salameh practiced with a firm in San Francisco for several years. He earned his Juris Doctor Degree from Georgetown University Law Center. While in law school, he also interned with a prestigious entertainment law firm in Los Angeles.

Mr. Filatov focuses his practice on transactional matters, and represents clients in structuring, negotiating and documenting commercial loans, as well as in all aspects of business and real estate transactions. Jack Easterbrook, who leads the firm's commercial, real estate and construction loan practice, said, "Serge will be important as we grow this practice area. He has a solid background in the sort of complicated transactions our clients bring to us." Mr. Filatov previously provided in-house legal counsel to Peralta Community College District as its Deputy General Counsel, Of Counsel. Mr. Filatov had responsibility for negotiating numerous contracts and leases on behalf of the District, analyzing a wide variety of contracts involving the District, providing advice to District managers, and documenting contract and lease transactions for the District. His Juris Doctor Degree was received from the University of California, Hastings College of Law.
